

Good Morning Pull Apart

Ingredients:

1 package of frozen dough balls (usually 20 in package)

1 cup brown sugar

¼ to ½ cup of instant vanilla pudding

¼ cup of raisins

2 tsp. of cinnamon

½ cup of butter

Directions:

A 10 inch Bundt pan is perfect for this recipe, make sure you grease the Bundt pan well (will prevent sticking) and layer the frozen dough balls in the bottom.

Mix the brown sugar, instant pudding powder and cinnamon together, (sprinkle mixture evenly on frozen dough balls).

Melt butter in sauce pan and add the raisins, pour this mixture over the dough balls as well.

Cover with a clean damp cloth and set on counter overnight.

In the morning remove the cloth and bake for 20 minutes in a 350F oven.

Remove from oven and let stand for 5 min., and then turn Bundt pan over on serving tray and enjoy. This is a quick and simple twist on the cinnamon bun.

Everyone will love it!
